I, James Blunt

H. V. Morton

I, James Blunt H. V. Morton

A fictional history of what life would be like if England lost World War II and in 1944 was living under Nazi rule. Morton writes that: "James Blunt's diary will remain fiction as long as England condemns complacency and brings to times of good news the same high courage and resolution which inspire and unite her in her darkest hours." It is also a serious book for Americans who believe that it cannot happen here.
