Newly updated August 2012! The Red River Gorge region of Kentucky is unquestionably one of the most beautiful and unique outdoor areas in the eastern United States. Towering vistas, striking arches, rugged waterways, and countless other attractions combine to make the area a hiker's paradise. The Red River Gorge Trail Guide is the ultimate handbook for selecting, locating, and hiking the official trails of the Red River Gorge, Natural Bridge State Resort Park, and the Clifty Wilderness Area. Eighty miles of trails are described, plus popular loop hikes. Trails are sorted according to quality, difficulty, and length. Detailed trail-head directions and descriptions are provided for each trail. Elevation profiles supply additional detail. This comprehensive information makes the Red River Gorge Trail Guide an indispensable tool for anyone wishing to explore this scenic area. The author has hiked, climbed, cycled, and otherwise explored the region for over 30 years.
