The historic Marvel Age of Comics comes to life with this collection of rare, archival-quality poster-sized reproductions of the past. Classic covers are presented in this unique, eco-friendly format for the avid collector as well as the casual fan. Each 20x28 inch poster is printed on premium, archival-quality, 100 percent recycled paper with soy-based inks, and fits in a standard poster frame. Long before he became an eye patch-wearing S.H.I.E.L.D. secret agent, Nick Fury was the commander of a World War II attack squad from Able Company that battled the Axis in the European and Pacific Theaters. They even came up against Captain Americas enemies, the Red Skull and Baron Zemo, and on several occasions joined forces with the shield-slinging, star-spangled superhero himself. In their first adventure together, Fury and Cap thwart a Nazi plan to dig a tunnel across the English Channel. (Fighting Side-by-Side with Captain America and Bucky!, December 1964) This is an officially licensed product of Marvel Comics.
