David has suffered many tragedies in his life, and has never felt as alone as he does right now. He had become accustomed to his loneliness, and was even growing content with it, when familial duties call him back to his people, and back into a role of leadership. But he needs a wife, and an heir, in order to completely fulfill his duties as leader. He cannot find anyone, and rather than put his clan at risk, he decides to find a woman online, through a selective mail order service. He finds a beautiful woman that he can't stop thinking about, until he finally sees her in person, and realizes reality is much better than fantasy.

Diana has been treated badly her whole life. She lost her family and her people, and has been the doormat of countless men through the years. She gave up hope, and offered herself for the highest bidder, hoping to at least end her nomadic life. When she is purchased by a man named David, she believes she has at least found some stability in her life. Hoping for the best, but expecting the worst, she meets David, and her life changes forever.
