Two wolves with the same true mate is rare. Two wolves who hate each other with the same true mate? It's a reality Brick and House live with.

Melissa Harris may have the occasional fantasy about being caught between the two rogue wolves who entered her life last year, but with reality including single motherhood and aging parents with no one to help her, well, who could blame her? No woman could look at those large, hard bodies and not be tempted.

When Mel's past becomes a threat to her present, can two lone wolves figure out how to work together to protect the woman who owns both of their hearts?
