This is the perfect-sized take-along guide to the best of San Francisco. Written by an area local, it's chock-full of maps and honest reviews about what's really worth seeing. And it includes not only the author's recommendations, but also other San Francisco residents' suggestions. Insider tips and fun city trivia let everyone, even diehard San Franciscans, learn something. It's got everything from information on where to stay, eat, and visit - including sights and attractions, museums and art galleries, kids' stuff, and parks and recreation - to advice on shopping, sports, performing arts, nightlife, and day trips. There's lots of practical information, too, such as lists of post offices, hospitals, and newspapers, plus sections on schools, the economy, and dressing for the weather, and a calendar of events.
