Sun Rays at Midnight: One Man's Quest for the Meaning of Life, Before, During, and After the Holocaust Norbert Friedman

Sun Rays at Midnight is the chronicle of the life of Norbert Friedman- his experiences before, during, and after he Holocaust. It is also a unique examination of the hearts and souls of those who endured the darkest days of the twentieth century, through the eyes of one of the period's most astute and insightful observers. The author reflects on the many relationships that sustained him through that time-from the most intimate to the most intricate, from familial love to his powerful faith in humankind and God.
