Zack Carter works long hours as an emergency room physician in Boulder, and he's got no time for romance. Besides, he doesn't trust women. His engagement to his high school sweetheart ended when he found her in bed with another man. He knows better than to open himself up again. But the first time he sees Brooke Adler, she practically takes his breath away.

When Brooke Adler's mother ends up in the hospital, the last thing in the world Brooke expects to find is love. But when Dr. Zackary Carter walks into the cafeteria, she thinks she might have found her own personal Doctor McDreamy.

Zack and Brooke meet again in the popular Pearl Street Mall in downtown Boulder and sparks fly. Now he can't seem to stop thinking about her. But Brooke can't seem to get past the fact that males have been choosing her flamboyant twin over her since they were six-years-old. Can she expect anything different from the handsome doctor?

Bad Case of Lovin' You is the second book in Anita Louise's contemporary romance series, The Adlers—a large family who are not only very attractive, but kind and considerate as well. The combination of sexy men and strong, spirited women, makes for a captivating and compelling read.

If you like Bella Andre, Jill Shalvis or Jessica Gray, you'll enjoy spending some time in the spectacular Colorado Rockies as each of the Adlers finds true love while tackling some interesting issues ... like child and spousal abuse, physical disabilities, identity theft, and more.
