Children who are asked to read slightly above their comfort level will develop into superior readers. Reading requires an active, discriminating mind that is challenged to think, compare, and contrast. Our literature study guides train students to become active readers. They focus on vocabulary, spelling, comprehension, and composition skills. Farmer Boy by Laura Ingalls Wilder is the biographical work of her husband telling the adventures of pioneer family life in the late 1800s. It is a perfect read for a child!
