PART ONE

Lacy Norton lives a simple life in New Jersey, helping to run her family's small hotel. However, that soon changes when her parents decide to uproot and buy a hotel on the Florida coast, setting the family off on a new adventure.

The new hotel is to be in Dolphin Sands, a bustling tourist town with a beautiful beach and a glitzy nightlife. After arriving, Lacy quickly goes out, with her younger brother Ryan in tow, to sample what the town has to offer.

The night is mellow, but the highlight is Rafe, a gorgeous boy she meets down at a chilled beach bar. At first Lacy dismisses him, but soon she's falling under his spell as he promises to show her around town and introduce her to some people.

But things don't quite go to plan. With the launch of the hotel set for two weeks after arrival, Lacy finds herself working night and day to help get everything ready...and gradually thoughts of Rafe slip from her mind.

That is, until the big launch itself, when the great and good of the town turn up. To the family's great surprise, billionaire Mayor, Marshall Cohen is one of them, but he doesn't come alone...

Because his son is right there alongside him...

PART TWO

So, the gorgeous boy Lacy met at the beach just happens to be the son of, not only the Mayor, but a billionaire too. The sort of perfect catch that girls can only dream of getting, and Lacy's all but gone and blown it before it gets started.

Or that's what she thinks. Because as the launch party continues, and she gets some respite out on the quiet, dark beach, beach boy billionaire Rafe Cohen comes to join her.

That night, he shows her the 'real' town of Dolphin Sands, and some of the people that make it tick, and ever so surely, Lacy sees another side to this beautiful young man with the storm blue eyes and olive skin.

Soon, a relationship brews, and Rafe tells her he wants to take it slow. It almost kills her, but when they finally cross the line, it's the greatest sex of Lacy's young life, and suddenly her mind becomes intoxicated with thoughts of a future with him.

But, sometimes ghosts of the past can come to scatter your dreams. And the morning after they first make love, Lacy returns to the hotel to see a face from her past who might just ruin everything...

PART THREE

Lacy is fully aware that her ex boyfriend, Tom's presence at her hotel is more than mere coincidence. He never stopped loving her, and he's here for one reason, and one reason only – to get her back.

Lacy, though, has well and truly moved on, and continues to get lost in her budding relationship with beach boy billionaire, Rafe Cohen.

After a wonderful dinner and night of passion down on the beach, however, Lacy wakes to some horrifying news – Rafe's in hospital, and he's been beaten to a pulp.

With Rafe's health at the forefront of Lacy's mind, the young couple find themselves growing ever closer, much to Tom's anger. And soon, Lacy discovers that Rafe's mugging, too, was no mere chance beating.

But will it all end well for Lacy and Rafe, or will Tom have the final say?
