University of the World: A Case for a World University System Dieter Lenzen

In this book, Dieter Lenzen analyzes the world's three major educational systems: the Continental-European, the Atlantic (Anglo-American) and the East Asian. Distancing himself from the current trend towards the economically driven Anglo-American system of education, the author proposes an alternative model, "a university of the world".

Contents:

- Three concepts of the university in the globalization process
- The dynamics of global social systems
- Global challenges in the post-secondary educational sector as springboard for comparing systems
- Convergence and divergence: current system dynamics in the post-secondary sector
- Can there be fair chances in a world university system?
- Conclusion

Target readers:

- Theorists of higher education
- Policy makers of higher education
- Administrators of higher education
- Social scientists

The author:

Professor Dr. Dieter Lenzen is the president of Universität Hamburg, vice president of the German Rectors' Conference (HRK) in Germany and the German universities' spokesperson for the HRK.
