In A Man of Two Faces Okure, the protagonist of the story who has come back home after having studied for six years in Europe, has turned his back to his relatives. Though much effort is done to retrieve him to his old ways by parents and close friends no success is met with, but he is left to "find himself". Through all this self-destruction much damage is done to the people who were close to him, his girlfriend after waiting for him for six years is thrown out for her "old ways".

It is in this narrative of a "son lost" that the reader is carried to the end with no sense of time.
