How I Got the Hell Out of Debt Steven Richard Smith

The author explains how he shed over $300,000 in debt--twice--all while working as a public school teacher. The book offers a compelling view of the debt burden in America today and how the writer made radical choices to pay off everything and to enjoy a life in the black. Included are secrets on boosting income and sources of generating funds while simultaneously slashing costs. Perfect for those searching for answers when it comes to reigning in debt.
