When It Rains Pamela Lowe

Rain grew up a popular young woman in a good neighborhood with lots of family and friends. She enjoyed the finer things in life and was on her way to an Ivy League university, and then the unthinkable happens. Rain meets a new friend who helps her through her struggles and teaches her a lot about the streets, Mainly "know the streets don't let the streets know you." Tragedy after tragedy strikes her life and when she reconnects with the man of her dreams she realizes the error of her ways but wonders if she can ever regain her life and not have to look over her shoulder for her past indiscretions.
