Have you ever wondered what happened after Sherlock Holmes died fighting evil Professor Moriarty over the Reichenbach Falls? It took time for the news to reach the general public, so desperate people still came to seek his help at 221b Baker Street. Well, Holmes' landlady, the experienced Mrs. Hudson, and her Cockney maid Fanny-Annie Grubbins, took over to become the Detective Ladies of Baker Street.

In 'The Detective Ladies Meet Jack the Nipper' women are being attacked in broad daylight on Oxford Street in London and nothing is being done to stop it. Miss Prim, their neighbour, is the latest and our Detective Ladies take up her case and go into the streets to track the vile fingered beast down. Only to encounter a cover up by the newspapers and the police. After arrests and kidnapping and murder attempts, the two stalwart ladies gradually home in on their suspect - only to discover he is not so easily identifiable as they thought.

A sinister story of Establishment arrogance and suppression of the truth while the public go in fear. And how two determined lady detectives finally expose it to the world.

The Detective Ladies series is loosely based on Peter Tong's stage comedy, 'Mrs. H of Baker Street.'
