The Veterinary Annual 32 (BS - Veterinary Annual)

Each year, through a series of expert articles, The Veterinary Annual continues to report on the very latest developments in clinical veterinary medicine and surgery. Now in its 32nd edition, the Annual is firmly established as one of the most essential additions to the reference shelf in both the small and large animal practice. The articles are stimulating and topical and each contributor is hand-picked for their expertise in their respective fields. Each article is fully illustrated and references are given for further reading. Notable articles of topical interest in Issue 32 cover Lyme Disease and Blue Ear Disease in pigs (the latter being the first published review of a new and important disease)
