The 5th Edition, Published 2012. Since this remarkable book was first published in 1999, over 24,000 readers have bought it in more than 60 countries around the world. Critics praised it to the skies. The FBI liked it so much they asked the author to come to America and train some of their agents. It's also the reason why Ian was asked to lecture to the Ministry of Defence and to work with the British Olympics Team. Some tried to ban it and one person sent Ian death threats if he continued to sell it (that was back in 2002... and he feels fine). Now you can discover what's behind the extraordinary success of this book. More importantly, you can learn all about the most persuasive communication psychology technique in the world - and how to use it in your personal, social and professional life.
