The Superstitions Cindy S. Ely

Like most teenagers Arizona Palmer just wanted to fit in and be a normal 16 year old. After a night in the Sonoran desert she would be anything but normal. Under the glow of a blue moon, while camping with her friends near the Superstition Mountains, Arizona is confronted with unforeseen danger which transforms her very existence in an unexpected yet profound way. Eventually she is lured back to the Superstitions where myth becomes reality and a charming, but mysterious acquaintance talks of sacrifice and destiny. Arizona is drawn to this mystery man, but questions his motives. Is he her rescuer or her adversary?
