In and Out of Love Poetry

Karen O'Donnell Taylor

In and Out of Love Poetry Karen O'Donnell Taylor

This original collection of poetry is based on actual love experiences of the author. It chronicles about nine months of her life (ironically) as she searches for love. Some entertaining poems relate to actual online dating experiences including poems such as "Fruit Basket Stalker" and "Dublin Scammer." Sometimes truth IS stranger than fiction! Playful poems such as "Clueless II" and "How Many Frogs?" are included with serious love poems dedicated to her latest and last love including "My Forever Man." There are also poems about being "out of love" such as "Profound Alone" and "Table for One." Karen O'Donnell Taylor is also the author of "A Single Mom Talks to God" and "Praying Through Your Divorce."
