Having a beautiful smile is one of the most important characteristics people desire. Study after study shows how important a beautiful smile is in successful relationships and obtaining goals. Orthodontic treatment has long been thought to be limited to children and adolescents. Not only is orthodontic treatment an option for adults, it is often the preferred option to veneers and crowns in creating that beautiful and healthy smile. With the development of alternative methods for orthodontic treatment, such as clear aligners and concealed (or invisible) braces, more and more adults are seeking orthodontic treatment.
