A Life Short and Loud: And The Long Journey Back Kevin W. Luby

Every parent's greatest fear is the death of a child. That fear became a reality for Kevin Luby on September 12, 2009. In this book, he recounts the aftermath of a tragic accident--the grief, the surviving family, and other concerns, both instant and distant. More than just an examination of grief, however, he explores the remarkable life of his son. The book becomes more of a travelogue, detailing the journey from childbirth to child's death and the long road back.
