For sisters Lucy and Rebecca Yoder, Rumspringa in California is a time of fun in the sun and sandy beaches.

When they get jobs at a film studio as tour guides, Lucy is less than thrilled at the prospect of mingling with Englishers.

For Rebecca, it is a time to exert her independence and cut her hair.

Being the youngest always meant having Rebecca to catch her if she fell. Lucy's never had to worry about her older sister.

Until now...

When Rebecca falls in love with teen idol, Brandon Caulfield, Lucy is horrified. Rebecca has a fiancé waiting for her back home.

She can't run off and shame her parents, especially since his father is the local bishop.

But Rebecca is tired of being responsible and she's a long way from Ohio. For her, there is no question where her heart lies.

Passionate love and a final act of betrayal collide to destroy everything Lucy holds dear...
